About BENDIX imaging, inc.

BENDIX imaging, inc. / BENDIX Technology Center opened in 2000 and is celebrating their 20th Anniversary. The company started as a toner cartridge remanufacturer and is one of very few left in the United States that still do that today. In the early 2000’s, they quickly moved into a full line printing and imaging support company and were the first to provide Managed Print Services for businesses, 10 years ahead of their competition. BENDIX also helps other dealers around the country operate Manage Print Services programs for their customers. BENDIX has grown to support companies from the East to West coast. In 2013 the shift to also provide Managed IT Services to their clients began and is now a leading service that is provided, with a strong focus on cyber security solutions. Today, their Managed IT and Cyber Security services represent 50% of the business and continuing to grow rapidly.
